News for Knights of Columbus

The inaugural feast of Blessed Michael McGivney was celebrated around the world last Friday, Aug. 13. As devotion to the K of C founder spreads, more and more people are finding that he responds to the prayers of those who seek his intercession.

Inaugural Feast of Blessed Michael McGivney

The liturgical memorial of Blessed Michael McGivney was celebrated Aug. 13 in the Archdiocese of Hartford, including at St. Mary's Church in New Haven, Conn., where Father McGivney founded the Knights of Columbus in 1882. Many K of C chaplains and others throughout the world, with permission from their local ordinary, also celebrated a Votive Mass of Blessed Michael McGivney in honor of his first feast day. Webinar: Faith in Action and Your Council

All councils are called to be "Faith in Action councils," that is, councils who through their programs and events provide for those in need and share the Gospel.

In an upcoming webinar, Aug. 26 at 8 p.m. EDT, members of the Knights of Columbus Fraternal Mission Department will review the Faith in Action program model and share resources available to you. REGISTER NOW
